Laura Kehoe, the creative force at the helm of Laura Kehoe Designs, exemplifies a passionate blend of creativity and determination that has defined her 15-year journey in luxury interior design. Known for her boundless energy, Kehoe thrives amid a whirlwind of projects, viewing each challenge as an opportunity for innovation. Her drive to design spaces that resonate with clients' personal tastes stems from her deep-rooted desire to bring joy through her work.

Leading an all-female team, Kehoe treasures the diverse perspectives and creativity each member brings. This Dynamic Woman remains steadfast in her values, embracing the notion that success lies in focusing on what truly matters.

"A dynamic woman is a woman who has the confidence to build up others around her and has a kind heart," she says. "She never judges others. We all have different challenges in life."

This fall, this Dynamic Woman's passion takes a tangible form with the opening of Arbor Row, a long-cherished dream brought to life. Nestled in DC Ranch, Scottsdale, this brick-and-mortar retail shop will feature a meticulously curated selection of beloved designs alongside Laura Kehoe Designs' signature pieces. The store represents not just a business expansion but a personal milestone, reflecting Kehoe's commitment to creating unique shopping experiences.

Inspiration flows from Kehoe's remarkable 94-year-old grandmother, whose resilience and positivity have been a guiding light in her life. Her grandmother's wisdom—"life goes fast, cherish the journey"—serves as a daily reminder to Kehoe of the importance of perseverance and optimism.

This Dynamic Woman's love for Arizona, with its blend of desert landscapes and vibrant culture, further fuels her enthusiasm, making every day a new adventure in her design journey.
